Tips for Minimizing Headaches and Heartburn and Chapped Lips:

1. Printing: WEPA-Printing is easiest to do with your Nautilus Card. There is a machine in the copy room where you can add cash to your Nautilus Card. Complete instructions can be found under “How Do I?” on our homepage.
2. You’ll need your Nautilus Card to check out books, too.
3. Wireless: We have a book at the Information Desk that you may borrow to help configure your laptop to the campus wireless (Argo-Air).
4. Drink plenty of fluids.
5. Get started with your research early. You can always make an appointment with a librarian.
6. Drink plenty of fluids.

A Feel Good Story to Warm Your Heart: A Tagline Story.

Remember so long ago when we had a contest for y’all to come up with a library slogan and remember how a bright lad, Nathan Young, won, and remember how we gave him an iPod Shuffle and how he wanted it in pink so he could give it to his mom and how awesome and adorable we thought that was? Well. Big-Hearted People continue to win. We entered his award-winning tagline in a nonprofit tagline contest and we won! He won!* Everybody wins! Notoriety, that is. Or, the intangible rewards that mean the most. Thanks to all who voted.

“The Quickest Way from Q to A” was voted the best of! Learn more at bit.ly/TKiDRW.

*Nice Guys Finish First. You heard it here!
I saw my other favorite slogan on a subway. It was for the Bronx Zoo and it had a picture of monkeys on it and it said, “Marmoset they’ll be days like this.”

Be Someone’s Buddy! Job Shadow Week!

So, a student just came to the desk and my friendly co-worker helped him print and he said, “You saved my life!” She saved his life! And here I am just writing a library newsletter 4 days late without up-to-date CPR training. The good news is we could both be like her when we grow up. Yes ma’am with a side of sweet tea. UWF Career Services is hosting Job Shadow Week from January 28th - February 1st with the theme “Follow Your Dreams, Shadow a Professional Week.” I’d say it’s a stellar idea. I mean, you may think you want to be a Roller Derby Queen, but can you take the heat? Contact Career Services to set up an appointment today at 474-2454, or visit their website. www.uwf.edu/career

Along the same lines, Be a Librarian!
(I mean, if you want to. Don’t get into it just for the cool clothes.*)

Dr. Christie Koontz from FSU will host a session in the Library Conference Room on January 14th from 1:00-3:00pm for all those interested in finding out about their Master of Science in Library and Information Studies Program.

*Though it is a definite perk.
